Some Ways to Use Swappable Mood Panels™

Scroll all the way down for different looks of these petite, non-leather handbags, each of them coming with a mix of complementary Swappable Mood Panels™, strap + chain.

A Borsa Ovale e Piccola petite handbag comes with THREE pairs of complementary SWAPPABLE Mood Panels.

Each pair of Swappable Mood Panels is a different color! Just snap them on/off, and they alter the tone of the bag! Even add removable stickers to them! Change the Swappable Mood Panels, change the look of a single handbag as you move among office / evenings / weekends and travel!

(If checkout isn't open during maintenance, then just email us to reserve your product.)

(Bags are available in Siky Powder Blue base / Silky Carnation Pink base / Pomegranate Red Sheen base. Each bag comes with a chain (silvery-chrome shade) as well as three different pairs of Swappable Mood Panels to snap on/off.)

Benefitting Good Causes

If you know of reputable charitable organization that may be apt to one of our products, then we invite you to refer that organization via Commerce.2x10@Gmail.COM.

Impresario, showcasing via My My stores, has an ethic of seeking to associate a share of net profits per line of business with good causes, e.g. via charities, as apt to product(s). For example: ReMakeAble bags curator m della m looks to benefit efficient providers of practical assistance to people re-entering the job market that helps them present themselves well (e.g. makeover, wardrobe, interviewing). Our studio behind Little Red Robin Hood et al looks to benefit reforestation, also introducing urban children to the outdoors and empowering young women.

As well, Impresario looks for opportunities to benefit emerging grassroots talent - e.g. in visualization, fashion or dramatization - that traditionally haven't had prominent platforms. Impresario has interests in a wide range of media - from the smallest screens to the biggest screens - as well as merchandise and other enterprises. For example, m della m invites vocational training programs to seek pro bono licenses of the reMakeAble system to utilize in instruction, projects by students and showcases of talent in the programs.
